Illustrative Voices presents:

Fauna, The Power & Symbolism of Animals

An art exhibition that portrays the human connection and lifeforce in animals.

THE EXHIBITION

These exhibiting artists acknowledge the importance animals of different and diverse cultures have. It is through these visual textures and patterns of creatures with fur, scales, horns, hooves, and much more that they show the connection and life-force humans share with their animal counterparts.

Fauna hopes to share we are all accountable as humans for how we treat each other and the respective animals of our culture.

FAUNA: A PERSPECTIVE

BY ILLUSTRATIVE VOICES

KINDNESS AND COMPASSION TOWARDS ALL LIVING THINGS IS A MARK OF A CIVILIZED SOCIETY. CONVERSELY, CRUELTY, WHETHER IT IS DIRECTED AGAINST HUMAN BEINGS OR AGAINST ANIMALS, IS NOT THE EXCLUSIVE PROVINCE OF ANY ONE CULTURE OR COMMUNITY.

What is a commonality that ties us all together?
Is there a force that keeps everyone connected?

Fauna brings together artists that portray the human connection and life force in animals. These exhibiting artists acknowledging the importance animals of different and diverse cultures have. It is through these visual textures and patterns of creatures with fur, scales, horns, hooves, and much more that they show the connection and life force humans share with their animal counterparts.

Some artworks explore the exploitation of one's culture through animal rights and cruelty. They bring to light that exploitation animal rights can sometimes be a byproduct exploiting human culture and human rights.

Cesar Chavez once said, "Kindness and compassion towards all living things is a mark of a civilized society. Conversely, cruelty, whether it is directed against human beings or against animals, is not the exclusive province of any one culture or community." These exhibiting artists bring to light the power and symbolism of animals

Be Like Tiger, 2022

8"x8", digital print

Be Like Tiger takes inspiration from my Chinese heritage, and coincides with 2022's Chinese Lunar New Year of the Water Tiger. Complimentary hues reinforce the theme of balance. It's also pays homage to Bruce Lee's mantra, "Be like water." Power comes from the ability to be fluid and adapt knowing the right opportunity to change direction.
